FROM THE CHAIR

It's quite a brief newsletter this month as it's a busy time for me at work.

Thanks to those of you who sent in solutions to the crossword in the 100th edition of News; the answers will not appear until next month so you still have until 17th November to send any late entries in and get yourselves in the frame for the mystery prize at the Christmas lunch!

Doubtless you are all busy either wrapping your pride and joy up in cotton wool for the winter or, for the more 'hands on', getting those important servicing tasks done.

In the last month, we have had a steady flow of events with an outing to a classic car meet at Bulwick, an enjoyable clubnight meal at Spalding Lifestyle and a return visit to Burghley House for their Spooky Halloween Tour. My thanks in particular to Nigel & Joy who had a hand in sorting out most of the month's entertainment and to everyone who supported the events.

This month, I am looking forward to Neil's talk on his submarining experiences and, later in the month, hope to see you at the White Horse in Baston for brunch.

Please also mark the date of our AGM (6 December) in your diaries, as we would like to see as many of you as possible to discuss the future direction of the Club to meet the wide-ranging needs of 175 members... We would also very much appreciate volunteers to join the Committee to share the load of event planning and organisation further across the membership.

Do please also remember to book your places for the Christmas Lunch on 11 December as we need to get our orders in early. I hope to see you there.

Finally, if you have any ideas for events in 2017, please let a Committee member (listed below) know so we can give your proposals full consideration as we compile our calendar for next year. The first events are already on the website.

AND FINALLY...

The Pope goes to London, and gets picked up at Heathrow by a limousine. He looks at the car and says to the driver, "You know, I hardly ever get to drive. Would you please let me?"

The driver is understandably hesitant and says, "I'm sorry, but I don't think I'm supposed to do that." But the Pope persists, "Please?"

The driver finally gives in, "Oh, alright, I can't really say no to the Pope." So the Pope takes the wheel, and out on the M4, hits the throttle and gets the limo up to over 100 mph heading towards London.

Soon a policeman spots him, takes off in pursuit and eventually pulls him over. The cop walks up and asks the Pope to wind the window down. Startled and surprised, the young officer asks the Pope to wait a minute. He goes back to his patrol car and radios his boss.

Cop: "Guv, I have a problem."

Boss: "What sort of problem?"

Cop: "Well, you see Guv, I stopped this car for driving way over the speed limit, but it's someone REALLY important."

Boss: "Important like the Mayor?"

Cop: "No, no, no, much more important than him."

Boss: "Important like the Prime Minister?"

Cop: "Way, way more important than her."

Boss: "Like the Queen?"

Cop: "Still more important, Guv."

Boss: "Who's more important than the Queen?"

Cop: "I don't know - but he has the Pope DRIVING for him!"
