Chair's Chatter

Apologies for the late arrival and brevity of this newsletter due to work commitments.

It is great to see some of our new Committee 'diving in at the deep end' to organise some events having only attended one Committee meeting. Both David Chapman and Steve Le-Sage have already kindly volunteered to arrange a brunch and a pub meal respectively in the next couple of months. I hope you will give them your full support.

Many thanks to everyone who ventured out to the Consti Club last month for Julie Baxter's quiz for which we had a different task from the usual questions and answer sessions. This time we had to put the names of singers and bands into a story – something which occupied our minds and challenged our memories very well and proved to be good fun, as advertised. There were multiple winners. Well done to everyone who top scored; you know who you are! Our collective thanks to Julie for an innovative and enjoyable evening.

This month we are out at our fish 'n' chip night at Market Deeping for which I am afraid we have no further room available in the restaurant; it's already fully booked. With almost 60 seats sold, I am sure I will see many of you there.

After the release of our initial dates last month, a slightly more complete iteration of the Club calendar is included on page 3. We hope you will be able to join us at as many of these events as possible.

SCARECROW FESTIVAL INVITATION

Michael Crowe, co-organiser of the Uffington Scarecrow Festival, near Stamford, PE9 4SY has extended his usual invitation for us to take our classics along to this year's event on Sunday 6 and Monday 7 May. It's a pretty low key affair, just turn up on the day, park up in a field on Greatford Road and you can follow the Scarecrow Trail around the village. Please try to arrive by around 10.30 as the Festival kicks off at 11am.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Many thanks to everyone who has renewed their subscriptions so far. Just as a reminder, Club subscriptions fell due on 1 January 2018. New rates now apply, which were voted through at the 2017 AGM of £15 for single and £20 for joint membership. Please renew as soon as possible. A subscription form has been issued with this newsletter.

All members receive a copy of this newsletter via e-mail. A copy can be sent by post on special request if the Postal Supplement of £8 is paid.

CLASSIC STORY ANYONE?

Do you have a story to tell about your classic car? Maybe some unusual history or a driving adventure to the Cotswolds or the south of France? Send in a photo, some text or a bit of both to Adrian at the address on page 1 or post to: Adrian Cunnington, 37 Grange Drive, Spalding, PE11 2DX.
