Chair-Mann's CHATTER

Joy Mann jmann@seccc.co.uk

Winter may well be on its way but things are definitely hotting up here at the SEECCC HQ! Much cogitation, deliberation and rumination and we are halfway through the planning of our 2022 calendar. Mr. Mann has also been using the grey cells but his thoughts tend to wander off in the direction of the garage rather than the office. Quelle surprise!

On the subject of the garage, it has also become apparent we have very different priorities when it comes to spending - mine was another pair of much needed specs and his was a stainless steel exhaust for the newly-acquired Supra. In his head, absolutely no contest, but I am delighted to report I can now not only hear the burble I can clearly see my reflection in the tail pipes!!

Torrential rain, a real deluge, and Mr. M dashes to ensure the garage doors are tight shut. But what about the house windows...? What house?

Sorry, I digress... back to the calendar, I am still hoping for suggestions. If you leave it entirely to me we'll be having afternoon tea, a pedicure and trips to Waitrose every month. So, please shout if there's anything you think would float our boats... though I do mean cars! Our committee is on the case and we have events planned for the first half of 2022. But we do need more ideas / volunteers please.

Back to 2021 and Christmas is looming, so please do let us know ASAP if you wish to join us for late lunch on Sunday, December 12th. Thanks to Jean Treversh who is taking the bookings via email, please see page 1.

Talking of Team Treversh, we all thoroughly enjoyed their run and Black Horse, Baston lunch on October 3rd, plus Steve Le Sage's very convivial gathering for the talk by Johnny Walkers on the 19th. Thanks folks!

I look forward to catching up next at the forthcoming brunch meet on November 14th, courtesy of Mr & Mrs Cornish - final call information is also on page 1 of this newsletter.

Bye for now,

Joy
