Chair-Mann's CHATTER

Joy Mann

jmann@seeccc.co.uk

I'm saying this very quietly... Christmas is coming... and it's time to get your places booked at the SEECCC festive table! I can't believe our Chequers lunch is just 45 days away on Sunday, December 11th, and we hope you will join us. Please book early as, once again, spaces are limited. We're dining at 3.30 pm giving you chance to do a bit of Chrimbo shopping or tree-tweaking beforehand!

Talking of celebrations, I've recently clocked up another year and I thought you might appreciate sight of Mr. Mann's choice of card... the same man that went out to view a potential new acquisition for a friend, a fabulous Mercedes SL, and sort of ended up buying a Morris Minor Woody for himself...

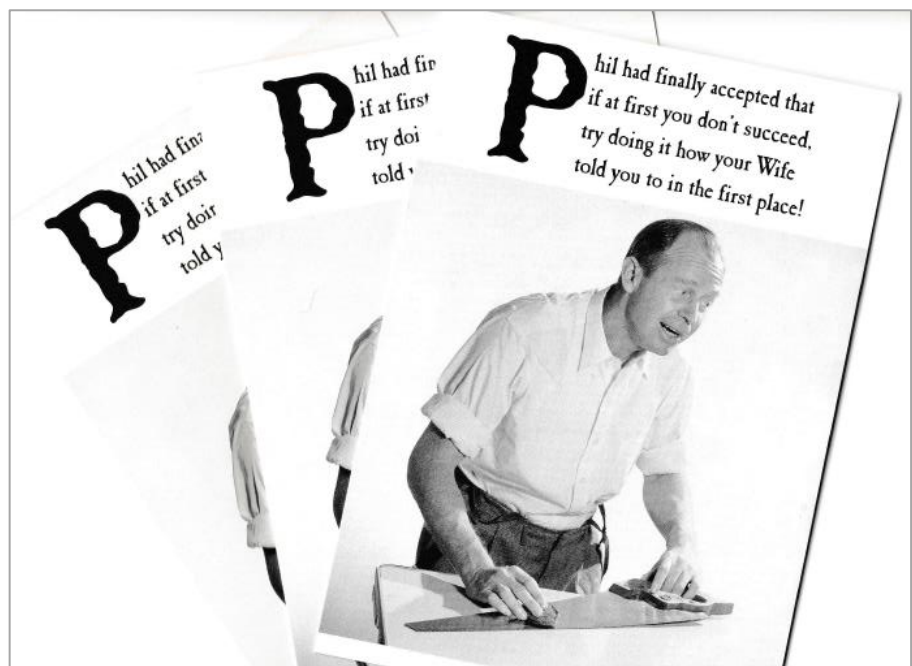

To be fair to my lovely spouse... I must confess I too have gone off-piste in the past. The impulse purchase of a lippy whilst a friend was perusing mascara springs to mind... 😞

The other birthday card is one I received a duplicate of... 3 YEARS ON THE TROT!

I bet you thought Mr Mann would be an old romantic, my knight in shining work-wear. Mind you, garage attire is crucial and he is still relying on the leftovers from the family's 105 years in the clothing trade. My late father-in-law, Doug, always said shop-window-faded clothing was fine as long as you kept moving about!!!

The thing he loved most about marriage was having the freedom to do whatever his Wife told him.

Rambling over. Back to SEECCC. Thanks to all those who supported our September events, David Hyatt's talk and Team Treversh's run last weekend, we are very grateful. The team works very hard to put together a varied and interesting calendar and it would be really useful if you would let us know of any other suggestions. We're open to any new ideas, please email me jmann@seeccc.co.uk ASAP as we'll start work on the 2023 plans at the end of next month.

Looking forward to catching up in November, bye for now,

Joy
