So many people to thank, so much going on and so little space and time! June got off to a cracking start with a very well supported Annual Run, more than 120 people taking part. Sadly, this was the last organised by Alan & Jackie Aistrup; our thanks go to them and also to Barry & Liz Aistrup, original organisers of the Alan Lyon Memorial Run. Proceeds raised on the day for our charity, Prostate Cancer UK, amounted to £1,461 – an impressive sum, thanks to all who contributed.

The club's coffers have also been swelled by the 160+ members who've renewed their subs in the last month, thank you! This is the last time we'll remind folk about renewals and sadly your last newsletter if you're not back on board.

Recent events included the ever-popular treasure hunt on Sunday 5th - thanks to Steve Le Sage and Stuart Gibbard ably assisted by their better halves, Chris and Sue. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the fun and first prize was scooped by Alan & Ruth Rundle in their Morgan.

Coming up, we have something a bit different planned, Saturday the 18th evening optional drive to Bulwick and al fresco pizza with Nigel and I.... (there is also an indoor restaurant so please do not panic if al fresco is not your thing!) Full info is on our website www.seeccc.co.uk or see below - bookings close this coming Saturday, 11th July.

Talking of the website etc, sadly we still have folk trying to access the old Facebook page which doesn't help with our attempt to get it to fade away! Our website gurus, Stuart and Sue Gibbard stuart@gibbardtractors.co.uk are happy to help but you can easily link with the right page via www.seeccc.co.uk and the correct Facebook link is on the Home page. You do need to scroll down to find it, feel free to ignore the video footage of me chatting about the club!!

Thanks to everyone involved in organising and supporting the club's display at Grimsthorpe Castle for Baston Show – and also to all our lovely members who caught up with us during the day. Glorious weather, great camaraderie, what more could we ask?

Another recent treat was an invitation from Richard and Val Mason, via their friends Stuart and Sue, and a very convivial gathering at their home (thankfully very cool under the trees!) to sample the delights of a breathtaking collection of tractors and cars.

Finally, we still have a superb calendar of events for your delectation! BUT you do need to confirm with us as soon as possible to avoid disappointment... For example, professional caterers have been booked for Adrian and Caroline's 23rd August event at their home in Gedney Dyke so early numbers are crucial please.

As mentioned above, Nigel and I are keen to crack on with our 'experimental' Saturday date, the New Lodge Farm Pizza evening, on July 18th but numbers here too are needed urgently! We've sampled the delights of New Lodge, in glorious Rockingham Forest countryside several times, with many members in tow, so can highly recommend it.

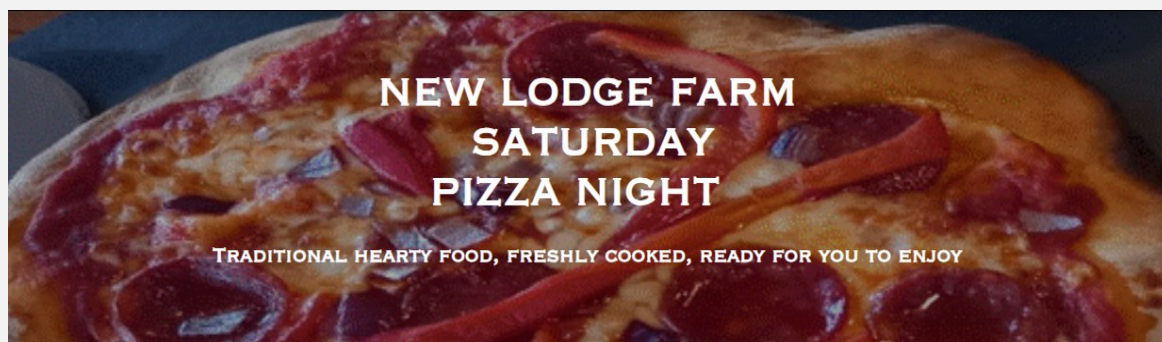

It's simples! Both the above events can be booked by emailing me at jmann@secccc.co.uk. We very much look forward to catching up with you soon!

Joy.

CAPTION COMPETITIONS:

June submissions

Nigel was disappointed with the turnout for the inaugural 'South Holland Old Codgers Association'

Nigel & Steve were intrigued why the ladies had been laughing about their suggestion of meeting in the garage to get some serious grinding done...

Nigel wondered if it would ruin a wonderful friendship if he offered to show Steve his King Dick!

N: I'm smirking because your zip's down! S: I'm laughing because your zip's down and you forgot your budgie smugglers!!

'I think Steve misheard me when I said we should get a photo on 'Grinder'!'

I see you're not doing anything again... Or have you just fted? (from PT ex-member)

July

For July, we have received something more seasonal, but our VP seems to be a recurring subject in most of these pics! Time to get your own back, Nigel? Suggestions please to the Editor by 25 July to seeccc.editor@gmail.com
